Colorado is a semiarid climate and water is an essential resource. Transitioning from a traditional turf landscape to a water-wise landscape will:

- Maximize outdoor water savings
- Encourages a healthy ecosystem
  - Increase landscape beauty
- Creates a sustainable landscape
- Reduce landscape maintenance

Helping create waterwise, Colorado-friendly landscapes and educating the public about their many benefits.

Learn more at www.northernwater.org