

Native Grasses Area

Native grasses reduce the need for irrigation, mowing and chemical treatments, while also providing beneficial habitat for a variety of pollinators, birds and other species.

These native grasses will be maintained according to approved maintenance procedures and accepted industry standards, including growth heights of more than 12 inches.

(your logo here)

To learn more about the benefits of native grasses and various other forms of water-efficient landscapes, go to www.northernwater.org.